

Axiata Supplier Code of Conduct

Axiata is strongly committed to observing the highest ethical standards in all its procurement activities. As such, this Axiata Supplier Code of Conduct ("Code") has been prepared to provide a clear statement of Axiata's expectation from Suppliers in all procurement dealings, ensuring that internationally recognised procurement ethics are followed. Transparency and accountability should be strictly adhered to in all procurement activities. This Code establishes the standards required for conducting business with Axiata. Our goal is to work with our Suppliers to ensure full compliance with these principles. These requirements set out the minimum levels of compliance required of Axiata's Suppliers. As a Supplier, you are encouraged to exceed the requirements wherever possible. We will consider these principles in our selection of Suppliers and will actively monitor Suppliers' compliance.

Axiata may amend and add to this Code at any time and from time to time. Supplier and Supplier Representatives are bound by such amendments and additions published from time to time and accessible at <https://www.axiata.com/our-business/suppliers>. References to this Code shall be deemed to include such amendments and additions. Supplier shall ensure that Supplier Representatives comply with this Code.

1. APPLICABILITY OF THE CODE

This Code shall apply to all the Suppliers including all prospective Suppliers, Axiata-approved sub-contractors, dealers, parents or subsidiaries of the Suppliers and their respective personnel, officers, directors, representatives, agents, contractors, and any other entities acting on the Suppliers' behalf (collectively "Supplier Representatives"). Suppliers including such Supplier Representatives shall ensure this Code and other relevant information are communicated throughout their organization and made available to their respective employees in a comprehensible language(s) of its employees and supervisors.

Suppliers' and the Supplier Representatives' acknowledgement of this Code is a pre-requisite in every Axiata contract for supply. Through the acceptance of a Purchase Order and/or signing of contract, which make reference to the Code, the Supplier commits that its business operations are consistent with the provisions contained in this Code.

2. BUSINESS PRACTICES

2.1. Laws, Including Regulations and Other Legal Requirements

Suppliers shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations in all jurisdictions where they conduct business. Where the requirements applicable laws differ or in conflict with this Code, the Supplier shall comply with the highest standard consistent with applicable laws.

Suppliers are also expected to ensure it has obtained all necessary regulatory approvals to conduct its business in the relevant jurisdictions. This includes any licenses, permits, approvals, permissions granted by local regulators and federal authorities.

2.2. Policy on Bribery and Corruption

Axiata expects all Suppliers and companies seeking to sell goods or services to conduct their business in accordance with the highest ethical standards.

Suppliers shall never offer a bribe or kickback in any form to Axiata employees, their families or nominees, or engage in unethical or unacceptable business practices in order to obtain or maintain Axiata's business. Suppliers are prohibited to directly or indirectly offer, promise, give, solicit or accept or agree to accept or attempt to obtain anything that might be regarded as a facilitation payment in any form. Suppliers shall never improperly influence a Public/Government Official and PEPs to seek or retain business advantage for and/or on behalf of Axiata Group and will make committed efforts to transact in a fair and transparent manner. Suppliers must report to Axiata if any Axiata employees or business associates requests any such incentive. During a bid or evaluation process, Suppliers should not entertain nor seek to influence Axiata employees involved in the bid or evaluation, or their families, through gifts, payments, favours, services or other benefits that will or could influence any business decision or that create the appearance of influencing any business decision.

Gifts in the form of cash or cash equivalent is prohibited. Any gifts offered, given or received shall be in compliance with the law and Axiata Group Berhad's Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Policy, and other relevant policies and procedures. If any gifts offered, given and received, employees are required to declare and/or get approval any gifts Nonetheless offered, given or received., Gifts should not be offered or given to Axiata Group employees or their relatives and families, if it could reasonably give the appearance of influencing the business relationship with Axiata or any business decision arising out of the business relationship. For the avoidance of doubt, gift is defined to include all forms of entertainment, travel and hospitalities, donations and sponsorships.

2.3. Position on Conflict of Interest

Supplier must report to Axiata Head of Procurement in writing if any director or employee of Axiata and/or relatives of director or employee of Axiata are employees, partners, directors, or shareholders (other than publicly traded securities) of the Supplier. Relatives of an Axiata director or employee comprise of the director's or employee's spouse, parents, children, brothers or sisters, or spouse of child, brother and sister. It is Axiata's policy that a director or employee declare any interests that they or their relatives, directly or indirectly, have in a bid or a Supplier.

2.4. Anti-Competitive Conduct

Suppliers shall comply to competition legislation and regulations where applicable and not engage in anti-competitive conduct such as but not limited to collusive behaviour, tying or linking arrangements, misuse of market power and refusal to supply.

Axiata expect its Suppliers to adhere to all anti-trust laws to ensure a free and open marketplace. Suppliers must not propose, or enter into, any agreements with a competitor to fix or stabilize pricing, allocate customers, territories, products or markets, rig bids or collude on bid quotes, or boycott a competitor or customers.

2.5. Dealing with Public or Government Officials and Politically Exposed Persons (PEP)

Axiata strives to build transparent and fair relationships with Public or Government Officials (including regulators) and PEP. PEP defined as a person entrusted with a local or foreign country's public or governmental function. Axiata Group suppliers, employees and/or their representatives shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations in all dealings or interactions with Public or Government Officials (including regulators) and PEP.

Axiata expects the conduct of Suppliers or supplier employees and representatives who perform tasks and works for Axiata Group to be above board. Any misrepresentation, illegal or unethical conduct shall be regarded as breach of this code of conduct.

3. LABOUR RIGHTS AND WORKING CONDITIONS

Axiata expects its Suppliers to comply with all applicable labour laws and regulations and international labour rights and principles as established by ILO in the 1998 Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at work.

3.1. Forced or Involuntary Labour

Suppliers shall not use forced or involuntary labour of any type (e.g., forced, bonded, indentured or involuntary prison labour). Employment is voluntary.

3.2. Child Labour Avoidance

Suppliers shall not use child labour. The use of legitimate workplace apprenticeship programs, which comply with all laws and regulations, is supported. Workers under the age of 18 shall not perform work that is likely to jeopardise the health or safety of young workers.

3.6. Non-discrimination

Suppliers shall not discriminate in its hiring and employment practices.

3.7. Freedom of Association

Suppliers shall recognize their employees' rights to join or refuse to join labour unions or associations and to bargain collectively as permitted by law. Suppliers have the right to establish favourable employment conditions and to maintain open communication and direct engagement between workers and management as a means to resolve workplace and compensation issues and promoting positive employee relations that make employees view third-party representation as unnecessary.

4. HEALTH AND SAFETY

Suppliers shall provide their employees with a safe and healthy workplace in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. Consistent with these obligations, Suppliers shall have trainings, certifications and implement effective programmes that include effective safety programmes to educate and remind their employees/workers on the fundamentals of health and safety.

Suppliers shall make available safety information on identified workplace risks and their employees is correspondingly trained to ensure they are adequately protected. Suppliers will identify and assess likely and potential emergency situations in the workplace and minimize their impact by implementing emergency plans and response procedures.

5. ENVIRONMENT

Suppliers shall operate in a manner that is protective of the environment. At a minimum, Suppliers shall comply with all applicable environmental laws, regulations and standards. Suppliers shall also comply with any additional environmental requirements specific to the products or services being provided to Axiata as called for in design and product specifications, and contract documents. Suppliers should strive to implement management systems to meet these requirements.

6. DATA PRIVACY AND CYBER SECURITY

All Axiata's corporate, customer, business partner and employee personal information, may it be in physical or digital form, are strictly private and confidential. Confidentiality is critical to protecting the integrity of our information assets, competitive advantage and regulatory compliance.

Axiata expects Suppliers to:

- process the data in accordance to Axiata's instructions, and its contractual obligations and at all times according to the local data protection laws and regulations;
- implement appropriate governance, physical, technical and organizational measures to ensure a level of security in line with the risk that the processing represents;
- conduct the engagement with integrity and maintain within the cost and time boundaries;
- be vigilant on risks and work within the limits of authority of the engagement without exposing Axiata to undue risks; and
- ensure that its employees and subcontractors receive appropriate training, and have committed themselves to an obligation of data privacy and cyber security.
- ensure any assets and systems they have been granted access to are protected from abuse and malware and to ensure and maintain a high level of confidentiality, integrity and availability.
- promptly notified Axiata on all weaknesses in cybersecurity discovered.
- shall not by action or inaction allow the systems and applications in Axiata be made vulnerable.
- comply with all applicable policies and standards while working on site at Axiata premises.

Axiata views breaches or non-compliance with laws or regulations, Axiata's policies or contractual terms, including those pertaining to data privacy and data security, seriously, and may lead to sanctions and actions being invoked against the Supplier.

Supplier shall promptly notify Axiata, in the event of any anticipated, suspected or actual;

- breach or non-compliance with laws or regulations, Axiata policies or contractual terms in relation to data privacy or data security and
- cyber threat to, security breach of, or loss or corruption of, Axiata's data and information.

7. ANTI MONEY LAUNDERING

Axiata Group strictly prohibits money laundering and terrorism funding in any form or manner.

Axiata views breaches or non-compliance with laws or regulations, Axiata or Axiata group policies or contractual terms, including those pertaining to money laundering and terrorism funding, seriously, and may lead to sanctions and actions being invoked against the Supplier.

Supplier shall promptly notify Axiata or the relevant Axiata group customer, as applicable, in the event of any anticipated, suspected or actual breach or non-compliance with laws or regulations, Axiata or Axiata group policies or contractual terms in relation to money laundering or terrorism financing.

8. MONITORING COMPLIANCE TO THE CODE

To facilitate the monitoring of Suppliers' compliance with this Code, Axiata expects Suppliers to:

- Develop and maintain all necessary documentation to support compliance with the described standards; such documentation shall be accurate, up to date and complete;
- Provide Axiata's representatives with access to all relevant records and documentations, upon Axiata's request;
- Allow Axiata's representatives to conduct interviews with the Supplier's employees and management and Supplier Representatives separately;
- Allow Axiata's representatives to conduct announced and unannounced site visits of Supplier and Supplier Representatives locations; and
- Respond promptly to reasonable inquiries from Axiata's representatives in relation to the implementation of this Code.

Supplier shall have a process in place for timely correction of any deficiencies or violations identified by such an assessment.

9. REPRESENTATION

Suppliers shall provide honest, accurate and open representation of their organization, its qualification, experience and capabilities. Suppliers shall also disclose, if requested, accurate references of previous work undertaken. Where references of previous work undertaken cannot be disclosed due to confidentiality obligations, the Supplier shall reasonably endeavour to obtain the appropriate permissions and shall at a minimum disclose such information without breaching such obligations of confidentiality.

10. RAISING CONCERNS

The official Speak Up channel (<https://wrs.expolink.co.uk/axiata>) can be used by Suppliers to voice and register their concerns, including any act or conduct that is in violation of the Supplier Code of Conduct, actual or suspected misconduct, illegal or unethical behaviour, without fear of retaliation or unfair treatment. A Supplier shall ensure that there is a reasonable belief or basis for the concern and the disclosure is made in good faith and not for personal gain or motivated by ill or malicious intention. Mere rumour or hearsay information is not the basis for speaking up or to whistle blow.

Axiata Group is committed to protect, within reason and means, anyone who reports or raises a concern in good faith, and those who participate in or conduct an investigation, from retaliation. For further information on Whistleblowing/Speaking Up and the official Speak Up channel, please refer to Axiata Group's Whistleblowing/Speaking Up Policy and Procedures (https://www.axiata.com/sites/default/files/docs/Whistleblowing_Policy_Procedures.pdf).

11. SANCTIONS

A breach of the Code may result in actions being invoked against that Supplier, in addition to any contractual or legal remedies. The actions applied will depend on the nature and seriousness of the breach and on the degree of commitment shown by the Supplier in breach to its obligations under the Code. The range of actions available to be imposed on the Supplier includes but is not restricted to the following:

- Formal warnings - that the continued non-compliance will lead to more severe actions;
- Disclosure of nature of breach to all Axiata subsidiaries and associate companies; or
- Immediate termination of contract, without recourse.
